Elderly People Helped Free

The last years of life are the sweetest, and yet the most difficult to prolong. It is then that the greatest care is exercised in maintaining bodily health. But the chief care should always be with regard to the food you eat and whether you are digesting it properly. You should not allow yourself to become constipated.
No doubt you have tried salts and cathartic pills, purgative tablets, etc., and have come to the conclusion that they are violent in action and do but temporary good. Listen, then, to the voice of experience with regard to a wonderful and mild laxative, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is not new, only we are trying to find new friends for it.
A. A. Feltz, of Johnston City, Ill., suffered from stomach trouble for six years and found his cure in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. His wife used it too with success. We could name hundreds of others. Some heard of it first through neighbors or friends; others through the doctor's offer to send any sufferer from a stomach, liver or bowel complaint a free sample bottle for trial, without charge. If you will send your name and address we will send you a trial bottle direct to your home. If it proves itself as he claims then continue the treatment by buying a 50-cent or $1 bottle of your druggist, as all of them sell it. Old people, like children, should look for purity, and it is well to mention that the purity of this remedy is vouched for with the U. S. Government. Also, though a free bottle is sent to prove its merits, results are always guaranteed from the regular bottles bought of druggists who will refund your money if it does not satisfy you. Send at least for the free test bottle today.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 509 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

James M. Stark, a native Kentuckian, 76 years old, passed away at his home, near Yates, Saturday. His widow and six children survive him.

Postmaster Powers of Cunningham now sports an automobile and all of the other postmasters in Chariton county have had to go away back and sit down.

Frank Bushnell of near Sumner sold a span of large black mules Wednesday of last week to Jas. Hopper of Clarence, Mo., a brother to C. M. Hopper of Sumner, for $600.

Sam Cravens of Salisbury whose 4-months-old mule colt took the premium at the recent Salisbury fair, sold this fine young animal to Lea & Fidler of Randolph county for $125. Sam is now lording it over other mule colt men over about Salisbury.

The oldest house in Huntsville built by the late Judge H. Austin, prior to the civil war, now owned by J. P. Hammett, burned down Monday. The house had just been remodeled. Insurance to the amount of $3,000 was carried. A defective flue in the kitchen caused the conflagration.

Newton Long, well an favorably known in the northwestern part of the county, has acquired a controlling interest of the share of stock in the Mendon State bank and has been elected president of that institution. Geo. B. Henderson was retained as vice-president and R. L. Brightwell as cashier.

At about 6 o'clock Tuesday evening the report of a revolver in the Glasgow Savings bank attracted quite a bit of attention. Marion Gibbs had gone into the bank, and seeing a revolver lying on a shelf, picked it up and began fooling with it, when it was accidentally discharged. Fortunately the bullet imbedded itself in a desk, instead of killing or crippling some one, as it might easily have done.

The story comes from Higbee of a genuine stir created in society circles there Saturday when an infuriated wife became jealous because she thought her husband's affections were being lavished upon a young girl, took a buggy whip and administered severe punishment to the young lady. The incident occurred at a big barbecue held near Higbee Saturday and while not on the program was doubtless one of the most interesting features of the day. Mrs. Winfrey, seeing Mr. Hubby standing in a corner of the ground in close conversation with a young lady of whom she was already jealous, became so infuriated that she was unable to with stand the temptation of taking a hand, and seizing a whip she administered several severe blows across the shoulders of her rival. No arrests were made and as the husband was also one of the managers of the barbecue it was up to him in his double capacity to quell the riot.—Moberly Monitor.

There is nothing so hard to overcome as habit. For 20 years Fred M. Lutz of Southwest Carroll has been driving to town in a buggy and tying his team to a certain hitchrack. Saturday he came to town in his big Buick automobile, drove up to the hitchrack, got out, felt under the seat, got a rope, and walked up to where the horses' heads should be only to discover that the daggoned thing would stand without hitching. After looking around to see if anyone was looking, he quickly entered at the back door of a store, thence to the streets and mingled with the crowd all unconscious that two pairs of eyes had been watching all of his maneuvers.—Norborne Democrat.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Chas. Hanson, formerly an engineer living at Moberly, met death in a railroad accident in Georgia recently.

Barker Rutledge of northeast of Sumner lost a $250 mare the first of last week, says the Sumner Star. The animal was tied in the barn, and in some manner got one of its hind feet over the halter rope and choked to death.

Laclede's fine school building was in danger of being destroyed by fire Wednesday. Spontaneous combustion had started a fire in the coal bin in the basement where several hundred bushels of coal is stored. It was discovered, however, before any damage was done, the fire only smoldering about two feet under the surface of the coal.

Mrs. Aaron McCullough fired three shots at a man who assaulted Mrs. Al H. White in Moberly Monday night. The women occupy the same flat and Mrs. White was descending a back stairway when a man lurking in the dark, jumped out and took hold of her. Mrs. McCullough was holding the lamp at the top of the stairs.

O. F. Pitney of near Higbee had a fight for his life Saturday while driving an infuriated bull. The animal's horns pierced him a glancing wound just below the breast and tossed him around bruising and scratching him. Help came just in time in the person of Wesley Henderson, armed with a pitchfork. Even the bull was almost exhausted.

Wm. Harkrader, who lives on the Givens farm, near Sebree, was painfully injured Wednesday of last week while driving a team to supply water for a threshing crew. The wagon struck a stump and Mr. Harkrader was thrown out between the team of mules and was kicked and stepped on and suffered serious injuries, several of his ribs being broken loose at the backbone.

N. A. Matlock, Randolph county's highway commissioner, tendered his resignation at Huntsville Tuesday afternoon. J. W. Lensley charged Matlock with submitting two sets of plans for bids on the construction of nine county bridges and Mr. Matlock admitted this. Judge Nise remarked that either the county court or Mr. Matlock ought to resign.

J. W. Deering, fireman on the C. & A., a resident of Slater, was killed at the junction of two passing tracks at Francis Friday night. A misunderstanding of certain signals caused two trains to back up and Deering was caught between an engine and tender, his head and body being crushed. The engineer, Wm. Hains, was badly scalded by escaping steam from the collision.

The preliminary examination of Ernest Mason, charged with the murder of Eulala Ruse, the negro woman who was killed in Brookfield August 16, was held before Justice Carlon Thursday. The testimony was about the same as at the coroner's inquest and Mason was held to answer at the October term of the Brookfield circuit court and remanded to jail. Dan R. Hughes and brother of Macon appeared as counsel for Mason and County Attorney Ira S. Gardner represented the state.—Brookfield Argus.

R. W. Arnold, the Macon county farmer who advertised for a wife, and who received several bushels of letters in reply, was yesterday married to Mrs. Anna Louer Spiker, a two times widow of Macon. Mrs. Spiker was not among the host who had answered Farmer Arnold's written call. He met her while selling a load of vegetables in Macon, and soon began bringing her little presents from the farm. This at once went to the widow's heart and she capitulated when the farmer offered himself.—Moberly Monitor.

Mrs. Mary M. Logue, a native of Pennsylvania, aged 88 years, died at her home, near Brookfield, Sunday afternoon. Nine children and a large number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren survive her.

We note in the Star that J. D. Stoner has a cluster of plums in the show window of Thorne's store in Sumner that would take the blue ribbon anywhere. They lay just as closely together on the twig as a bunch of grapes—in fact, there isn't room on the twig for another plum. They grow on Mr. Stoner's farm, east of Sumner.

We are informed by the Star that C. E. Wanamaker, joint agent for the Burlington and Wabash at Sumner, swore out a warrant Monday before Justice F. M. Lewis for the arrest of Wm. Parker, late time-keeper for the Dagoes and Greeks on the Wabash at Sumner. Mr. Wanamaker alleges that Parker sold him some bogus time-checks to the amount of something like $100. Parker resigned his job several weeks ago, just after the time he is alleged to have sold the worthless paper, and since then his whereabouts have been unknown. The warrant is now in the hands of the officers and if young Parker can be located he will be brought in to face the charge.

We note in the Tribune that Ed Mahaney of near Triplett was seen going down the street with a big market basket full of provisions Monday evening. Besides this he ordered a dray load of groceries to be sent down to his home at once. Ed had company at his house and was preparing to set a fine table. His visitor was a dandy boy that arrived at his home Monday evening. Several horse buyers had been in town, but Ed had no time to deal with them. His whole attention is given to his new heir and only son. Congratulations.
